Ley James addressed the meeting. Thanking the club that he as been a member for 50 years and 35 years President. Both He and Pat had held various positions within the club.

He had given the club 12 month notice of his retirement.

It had been a benchmark of the club that it has had stability within its executive and contributed to the success of the club.

No other club in Qld has the facilities that the Cairns Club has.

The meeting closed at 1850 hrs.
